

Jump Pads – New Board Element

Jump pads are a way to avoid hazards without the movement cost of jumping them. You have to place a jump pad on either side of the hazard for them to work correctly. It costs 1 movement point to move onto a jump pad, no movement to move to the opposite jump pad. Moving off the jump pad is a normal move.

