Instructions

Employee

Who qualifies — You may claim exemption from withholding if: (1) you are under age 18, over age 65, or a full-time student under age 25, and (2) you had no New York income tax liability for 2006, and (3) expect none for the year 2007. (For this purpose, you have a tax liability if your return shows tax before the allowance of any credit for income tax withheld.)

If you meet these conditions, file this certificate, Form IT-2104-E, with your employer. Otherwise, your employer must withhold New York State income tax (and New York City and Yonkers personal income tax, if applicable) from your wages. Do not send this certificate to the Tax Department.

Generally, as a resident, you are required to file a New York State income tax return if you are required to file a federal income tax return, or if your federal adjusted gross income plus your New York additions is more than $4,000, regardless of your filing status. However, if you are single and can be claimed as a dependent on another person's federal return, you must file a New York State return if your federal adjusted gross income plus your New York additions is more than $3,000.

If you are a nonresident and have income from New York sources, you must file a New York return if the sum of your federal adjusted gross income and New York additions to income is more than your New York standard deduction.

A penalty of $500 may be imposed for furnishing false information that decreases your withholding amount.

When to claim exemption from withholding — File this certificate with your employer if you meet all the conditions listed above. You must file a new certificate each year if you wish to continue to claim the exemption.

Liability for estimated tax — If, as a result of this exemption certificate, your employer does not withhold income tax from your wages and you later fail to qualify for exemption from tax, you may be required to pay estimated tax and be subject to penalty if it is not paid. For further information, see Form IT-2105, Estimated Income Tax Payment Voucher for Individuals.

Multiple employers — If you have more than one employer, you may claim exemption from withholding with each employer as long as your total expected income will not cause you to incur a New York income tax liability for the year 2007 and you had no liability for 2006.

Revocation by employee — You must revoke this exemption certificate (1) within 10 days from the day you expect to incur a New York income tax liability for the year 2007, or (2) on or before December 1, 2007, if you expect to incur a tax liability for 2008.

If you are required to revoke this certificate, if you no longer meet the age requirements for claiming exemption, or if you want income tax withheld from your pay (because, for example, you expect your income to exceed $3,000), you must file Form IT-2104, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer. Follow the instructions on Form IT-2104 to determine the correct number of allowances to claim for withholding tax purposes.

Filing status — Mark an X in one box on Form IT-2104-E that shows your present filing status for federal purposes.
